

January 11, 2006

Invitation Letter for the Design of the Medal of the Beijing 2008 Olympic Games

The Beijing Organizing Committee for the Games of the XXIX Olympiad (hereinafter, "BOCOG") hereby requests for proposals for the design of the Medal of Beijing 2008 Olympic Games (hereinafter, "Olympic Medal") from the general public (hereinafter, this "Selection Process").

The Olympic Medal is one of the important elements of the Beijing 2008 Olympic Games, and an important medium to exhibit the philosophy of the Beijing Olympic Games and Chinese culture. BOCOG sincerely welcomes and invites the individuals, legal entities and other organizations who are willing to contribute to the design of the Medal of Beijing 2008 Olympic Games to participate in this Selection Process. Those who determine to accept BOCOG's entrustment as a candidate to participate in this Selection Process may download this Invitation Letter and its Appendices (hereinafter, "Request for Proposal") from the official website of BOCOG at www.beijing2008.com.

The candidate shall carefully read the Request for Proposal, prepare the proposal in accordance with its requirements, execute appropriate legal documents, and serve the submission in person or by post to the address specified below. The time of service shall be the time when BOCOG acknowledges the receipt after the above documents are delivered in person or by post.

Submission (Mailing) Address: Room 813, 24 Dongsi Shitiao, Dongcheng District, Beijing

Post Code: 100007

Addressee: Culture and Ceremonies Department of the Beijing Organizing Committee for the Games of the XXIX Olympiad

Any change to the above address will be published on the official website of BOCOG in a timely manner. The candidate shall pay attention to the update information when serving the submission.

Best regards,

Beijing Organizing Committee for the Games of the XXIX Olympiad