

LETTER OF SUPPORT BY PREMIER ZHU RONGJI

Beijing, 30 November 2000

Respected President Juan Antonio Samaranch,
Respected Members of the IOC,

The Chinese Government gives all-out support to Beijing's bid to host the Games of the XXIX Olympiad in 2008.

I am confident that with the support of the Chinese Government and all the Chinese people, Beijing will be able to organize the 2008 Olympic Games successfully.

During the Olympic Games, the Chinese Government and all its relevant departments will respect the rules and by-laws of the Olympic Charter and the regulations of the International Federations related to the Olympic Games. I am personally ready to ensure the implementation of the rules and regulations.

China and the city of Beijing enthusiastically look forward to the hosting of the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing.

朱鎔基

Zhu Rongji
Premier of the State Council of
The People's Republic of China
